

Membership Agreement

As a member of the NSPA your organisation can expect:

- ♥ To be part of a growing alliance acting to reduce suicide, improve support for those bereaved by suicide and making a measurable difference.
- ♥ Regular communications about the NSPA's work and members' activities.
- ♥ Access to information, reports, good practice and guidance.
- ♥ Opportunities to collaborate with other members.
- ♥ Your name and logo to be displayed on the NSPA website and in the annual report
- ♥ Your current priorities, challenges and updates to be shared via the NSPA website
- ♥ One vote at the annual members' meeting and the right to elect members of the steering group

As a member of the NSPA your organisation agrees to:

- ♥ Support and promote the aims of the NSPA as set out in the NSPA Declaration
- ♥ Nominate one person who has the authority to represent it and vote at the members meeting.
- ♥ Inform us of current priorities and challenges which we will share publicly via the NSPA website
- ♥ Share information, contacts, intelligence and good practice within your own organisation, with the NSPA and with other members.
- ♥ Attend NPSA events
- ♥ Look for opportunities to collaborate with other members - learning from each other, building on what works well and pooling resources
- ♥ Promote your membership of the NSPA (adhering to the guidelines about using the NSPA's name and logo) and encourage others in your networks to join
- ♥ Contribute resources to the NSPA's work if it can – either a financial donation or support in-kind
- ♥ Be respectful of the balance between promoting relevant products and services with other NSPA members and the inappropriate use of member communication channels.
